

Andrew Pickering started at Liverpool Magistrates' Court as Court Assistant in 1985, moving to Warrington in 1990 where he has been since and is currently Senior Legal Adviser with specialism in Youth Court Work.

Andrew passed his DML at Bristol Polytechnic in 1990 and converted to a degree in Magisterial Law at Nottingham Trent University in 1999. he completed the LPC in 2002 and was admitted as a solicitor in November 2006.

He is married to Andrea with two children daughter Rachel aged 9 and son Daniel aged 7. Andrew is interested in all sports and has played regularly for a local hockey team for the last 25 years. He also enjoys reading and foreign travel.