

Jane Lynam – Profile

Jane has worked for over thirty years in the Magistrates' Courts, the last twenty at Hounslow Magistrates' Courts, where she is currently Bench Legal Manager. She started her career as a trainee court clerk at Solihull Magistrates' Court and subsequently worked at Wolverhampton, Bristol, Slough and Staines Magistrates' Courts. In 2004 she spent a short spell as Acting Justices' Clerk for South West London.

As a JCS Council member, Jane assists Nick Watson with the training brief and currently represents the Society on the Dedicated Drugs Court Pilot Steering Group and the Postal Requisitions Working group.

Jane lives in Surrey with my seventeen year old son and pet rabbit. Her interests include reading, Pilates and West Bromwich Albion.
