

A Law graduate from University College London, Jane started work as a trainee court clerk at Solihull Magistrates' Court in 1976. She was admitted as a solicitor in 1978 whilst working at Wolverhampton Magistrates' Court and moved to Bristol Magistrates' Court in 1979 before moving to the South East in 1982. She was Principal Assistant at Staines Magistrates' Court before joining the newly formed Hounslow LJA in the same role in 1986. She became Bench Legal Manager there and then moved to her present post of Deputy Justices' Clerk at Kingston and Wimbledon Magistrates' Courts in 2008. She enjoyed a short spell as Acting Justices' Clerk for SW London in 2004.

Jane has been a member of JCS Council since 2005 and fulfilled roles on the Sentencing and Training Committees.

Jane has one son who is about to graduate from Exeter University. She is a long suffering supporter of West Bromwich Albion and enjoys Pilates and membership of a very low-brow book club.
