

Norman Draper BA (Hons) – Justices' Clerk for Merseyside.

Norman Draper is aged 52 years and has worked within the Magistrates' Courts since 1978, beginning his career in Portsmouth.

Prior to joining the Magistrates' Courts Service Norman qualified as a Barrister.

In 1981 he moved to Merseyside, first at the Wirral Courts (where he became Deputy Justices' Clerk) and in 1992 to Knowsley as Justices' Clerk. In October 2000 Norman Draper was appointed Justices' Clerk to all six Local Justice Areas in Merseyside. He is a member of the Council of the Justices' Clerks' Society and is presently Chairman of its Criminal Law Committee.

Norman Draper is married with three children.