

Stuart Hope's interest in the magistrates' courts service began during his undergraduate years: The dissertation that he produced for his degree was entitled "The Role of the Justices' Clerk". He began working as a trainee court clerk in Nottingham in 1989 and was admitted as a solicitor in 1991. He became the Deputy Justices' Clerk at Mansfield in 2005.

Out of work he travels extensively, but not as extensively as he'd like!
